The major publication of the Bollandists, a group of scholars called after Jean Bolland and composed before the French Revolution of Flemish Jesuits in Antwerp and since 1837 of Belgian Jesuits residing at Brussels (St. Michiels-college). This work is a critical description, based on authentic sources, of the lives of all the saints mentioned in the Martyrologium Romanorum. This ecclesiastic calendar also determines the sequence of the treatment, i.e. according to the celebration or commemoration of the relevant individual (usually the day of his death), which is why the volumes are referred to according to month and number (e.g.: ASS. Nov. II).

The original edition appeared first at Antwerp (50 vols., 1643-1770, on the saints from January 1st to October 7th), and then at Brussels

(16 vols., 1780-1940, including the saints from October 7th to November 25th) and at Tongerlo (1 vol., 1794, October 12th to 14th). Special importance is attached to the 67th volume, Propylaeum ad Acta SS. Decembris, Brussels 1940, in which a commentary on the entire Martyrologium Romanorum is given.

Later editions were published in Venice (44 vols., 1734-1770, to September 18th) and Paris (60 vols., 1863-1867, to October 29th).

Supplementary material has been provided since 1882 by the Analecta Bollandiana (with it since 1891 the Bulletin des publications hagiographiques and, since 1886, the Subsidia hagiographica).
